Song — "Drink to me only with thine Eyes"

Andante

Drink to me on...ly with thine Eyes and I... will pledge with mine Or leave a hilt with...in the cup, and

I'll not ask for wine..... Drink to me on...ly with thine Eyes... and I... will pledge with mine.

I send thee love a very sweet
 As giving it a hope that thou
 Thyself may without be.
 But thou knowest did I only breathe
 And send it back to me:
 Since when it looks and smells sweet
 Thyself it is but thee.

But lay soft down on the spray,
Till softly murmuring from above;
Then cheer one with thy parting lay
And I will answer with a note.

But soon as spring ennobled with flowers,
Come dancing for the new day's dawning
Return and cheer thy natal bowers
My Robin with those notes again.
